

First Aid at Work FAW Requalification

Course Duration: 2 Days

Aim and Objectives:

This course is for qualified first aiders who wish to refresh their skills and renew their First Aid qualification for a further 3 years. (The requalification course must be completed within 28 days of the original training expiry date)

Course Content:

The course covers a condensed/ re-cap version of the First Aid at Work syllabus in accordance with regulations 3(2) of the Health and Safety (First Aid) Regulations 1981 and will include information on any changes and updates in accepted first aid protocols.

The course also includes an assessment during the afternoon of day 2 as with the 3 day First Aid at Work course.

Please Note: It is also recommended by the HSE that candidates attend a refresher course annually in order to keep their skills up to date. (Please see the separate 'First Aid at Work Refresher' course description for further information).
